I hereby release Monmouth University, its agents, assigns and employees, particularly the sports Medicine staff, from any liability caused by, or arising out of participation in university- sponsored events. I recognize that there is a risk of injury associated with playing a sport and do hereby authorize the assigned athletic trainer to provide emergency first aid. I authorize the trainer to act for me according to his or her best medical judgment in any emergency requiring medical attention. I also recognize that any medical treatment provided by sources other than the athletic trainer, such as hospitalization, will be my financial responsibility.

Jamboree Directors

Jill DiSanti is the former associate Head Field Hockey Coach at Monmouth University and current Owner of the Surf & Sand Field Hockey Club while at Monmouth she helped develop 21 NEC honorees, 27 MAAC honorees, 18 Mid-Atlantic All-Americans, 3 National All-Americans, 1 NEC Player of the Year, 3 MAAC Players of the Year, 5 Defensive Players of the Year and 3 Attacking Players of the year honorees. While DiSanti was involved in all aspects of the game her Primary responsibility is working with the Monmouth Defensive Uni and both the Attacking & Defensive Corner Units. Over the past 5 seasons Monmouth has consecutively been the home of the Defensive Player of the Year (2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017) and has had the Player of the Year on their defensive line 3 of the last 4 Seasons (2013, 2016, 2017). DiSanti has also helped guide the hawks to 2 NCAA tournament appearances in 4 years (2014, 2016). Prior to joining the Hawks in March of 2007 DiSanti served as the assistant a Quinnipiac University for three seasons. She is also the Co-Owner of the Surf & Sand FHC. A 2005 graduate of Quinnipiac University, DiSanti helped lead the Bobcats to two Northeast Conference tournament titles (2001, 2003), two NCAA tournament appearances (2001, 2003) and the 2002 NEC regular season title. The first team in conference history to finish the regular season with a perfect mark. In addition DiSanti, was a two time NFHCA Mid-East Region All- American (2003, 2004) as well as a three-time All-Northeast Selection (2002, 2003, 2004). She was also named the (2004) Most Valuable Player and served as the teams Captain in 2004. Most recently DiSanti's was inducted into the Quinnipiac Hall of Fame as a member of the 2001 team.

Maggie Long is the Associate Athletic Director for Development at Rutgers University. Previously an Assistant Athletic Director, Long was promoted to her current position "On the Banks" in September 2016. In her current role, Long will continue to oversee R Fund, the Rutgers Athletics annual giving program, and serve in a leadership role specifically involved with determining fundraising priorities, campaign strategies, hiring decisions, and budget planning. As the Assistant Athletic Director of Development for R Fund, Long oversaw the R Fund, which saw exponential growth between 2014 and 2016 following Rutgers' transition into the Big Ten. Since that time, the R Fund has doubled in both number of donors and in operating support. At the end of the 2016 fundraising year the R Fund had increased their donor base to 9,300 and raised over $12 million in annual operating support. Long was responsible for developing, implementing and evaluating all annual giving initiatives and programs - including acquisition, stewardship, events and communication to the Rutgers Athletics donor base. Managing the Annual Giving team, she also oversaw priority seating and parking for football as well as men's and women's basketball. Prior to her arrival at Rutgers, Long spent five seasons as the assistant coach for the Monmouth University field hockey program after completing a stellar playing career at the College of William and Mary. Long's responsibilities included on-field coaching, recruiting, academic development, special events planning, fundraising and coordinating Monmouth Field Hockey Camps. Maggie helped guide the Hawks to back-to-back Northeast Conference Championship game appearances while gaining the nation's attention in the process as the team was listed in the Kookaburra/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division I National Coaches Poll.
